To Whom It May Concern:

Peter John A. Messiah is an outstanding individual who exhibits professionalism, and extraordinary administrative professionalism.

Peter Messiah is a person who has direction, yet never forgets the past from where he has come. I believe that it is this mindfulness that has developed such a compassionate individual who has a genuine concern for humanity. This has been evidenced through the grants that he wrote for nonprofit community organizations and the constant striving Peter Messiah has for making our community a better place for people of all ages.

Peter Messiah has proven himself to be an excellent communicator, an innovative trendsetter in the educational field, and an individual that embodies and displays true professionalism.

I do not dare to guess the qualifications required for the position for which Peter Messiah is seeking. I can, however, let you know that if you're looking for professionalism, dependability, trustworthiness, ingenuity, diligence, and an excellent work ethic, he is one I can recommend with complete confidence. It is with great sincerity that I recommend Peter Messiah as a candidate for employment with your organization.

Sincerely,

Tammy T. Carter
